

Dear EMS Families:

As part of your enrollment process, we are sending you the attached form, which you may use to receive reimbursement for transportation to school. If you are interested in seeking reimbursement, please complete the form and return it to Gloria Hall by March 1, for processing.

This form is then sent to local school districts, but not all districts provide monetary aid in lieu of transportation. If you have any questions concerning your family's eligibility or this letter, please call your local Board of Education.

If you have any additional questions about school forms, or the process of enrolling online with the information that you should have received in a separate email, please contact me at x7208.

Sincerely,
Jan Abernathy
Director of Communications
